

Who could argue with Eisenhower's Favorite Sign-posts, Seniors Sue Bailey and Jess Hopkins

Booster Club Week's Campaign to Shatter Membership Record

After plans were discussed by student council members and principal Albert Keegan in a meeting with Booster President William Voeller, Rialto's Mayor Robert Hughbanks proclaimed September 20-26 as Booster Club Week. Ernest Murphee is in charge of individual membership drives.

Four Teams

The teams competing will be the Junior High, the Sophomore class, the Junior class, and the Senior class. Announcement of the winning class will be made at a half-time at Eisenhower's first football game, which will be played on the Colton gridiron with Chula Vista on September 26.

Boosters Plan For Hootenanny

Who gives a bigger hoot? Parents or students. That will be determined by the Booster Club hootenanny, Friday, September 25, at 7:30 in the EHS gym.

Students vs. Parents

The hootenanny will get the theme "Spirit alive in 65" rolling with a duel between Eisenhower's students and their parents.

During the evening, Coach Milt Smaha and ASB prexy, Steve Reilly are scheduled to speak. The leadership groups will be on hand to lead a cheering contest.

The Villagers

Leading the hootenanny will be the "Villagers," EHS graduates, Gary Cox, Judy Carruthers, and Diane Ukleja.

A Dance For Winners

A dance will be sponsored this Fall for the class team bringing in the most new members, with the net profit going to the winning class.

In addition, each team selling over 200 memberships will receive 50% of the sales made after that number.

Seniors Represent Ike at Boys' State

This summer Don Campbell and John Grenfell were chosen to represent Eisenhower in the annual "Boy's Day" outing sponsored by the American Legion.

The legion paid the boys' way to and from the Sacramento fair grounds where they lived in a cowbarn, sleeping on cots for eight wildly educating days.

All the boys were divide into cities and counties, fifty boys to a city and three cities compromising each county.

Elections Held

City elections were held first, followed by county elections, with the boys running for the office of their choice.

After the victorius candidates had served their terms of office (4 days), state elections were staged. Don Campbell was elected to the post of Fire Chief in the city elections and County Hiway commissioner in the county election. John Grenfell held down the job of California Code Commissioner on the state level.

Besides learning how the California government was operated, and how it functioned, the boys participated in the many sport activities offered, visited the Capitol buildings and Fort Sutter, and received certificates for being selected in their "campaigns."

Rea Attends Girls State

Representing Eisenhower, Senior Stevie Rea attended Girls State, held at the University of California at Davis, June 22 through July 1.

Girls State is sponsored and financed each year by the American Legion Woman's Auxiliary. The purpose of Girls State is to give girls a better understanding of city, county, and state government through actual experience.

The 557 Girl Staters were divided into 16 cities of 35 girls each. Four cities formed a county. The two political parties were the Whigs and the Tories.

Colton Convicts

Stevie was a citizen of the "Colton Convicts." She was on her city's election board, and Chaplain of the State Assembly. She assisted her city editor with the "After dinner Post," a newspaper published every evening.

Whig Elected Governor

For the 15th consecutive year, a Whig was elected governor. She and her opponent, who was elected "Outstanding Citizen" will represent California at Girls Nation.

Activities included swimming, volleyball, writing to members of Boys State, and being ambushed by part of the Davis male student body.

When asked what impressed her most, Stevie replied, "The girls... They were all really fabulous. Another thing was the tremendous spirit that everyone displayed, and their willingness to work together."

Spirit Alive in '65 Named '64-'65 Theme

Eisenhower Eagles will be seeing the slogan "Spirit Alive in '65" in almost every conspicuous place on campus this year.

Proposed by Senior Class President, Bob McKinney, the slogan is the theme for this school year. It is felt that by using this theme, Eagles will be reminded to keep up school spirit.

Banner for Gym

The Banner shown in the picture will be placed in the gym and can also be used by the drill team in parades and at ball games.

The Booster club for the parents and friends of students has made extensive plans to draw school spirit in the coming year.

Rally Committee

The Rally Committee is open to students who are interested in promoting spirit. Headed by Under secretary of Activities, Judy McGowan, the Rally Committee will plan the football homecoming and decorate football goal posts.

Dance Welcomes Students to Ike Hi

Welcoming students to the new '64-'65 school year is the theme of this year's Hello Dance, which is scheduled for September 18, from 9:00 to 12:00 PM in the Eisenhower Cafeteria.

Admission is free for those students with A.S.B. cards, otherwise tickets may be purchased for 75 cents at the door, or 1 dollar per couple. Guests from other schools must have passes, which may be obtained from the vice-principal's office. The appropriate attire is regular school dress.

Music will be provided by The Torkays, who have performed throughout the Inland Empire.

Highlighting this year's event is the performance of various Leadership groups. Cheerleaders will be in attendance with a rally of cheers to set the mood for "Spirit Alive in '65."

ASB Cards Sold On Quad At Noon

Student Body Cards are now on sale in front of the cafeteria during both Senior high lunch periods.

The cost of an A.S.B. card is $5.00 and with its purchase students can save themselves and their parents approximately $30.0., according to Linda Maas, Sec. of Promotions.

Ware Returns From AFS Trip; Tells of Life in Switzerland

Eisenhower's first exchange student to go overseas, Marybeth Ware, is back at home. A little travel-weary, but otherwise fine, Marybeth took time out to answer questions about her summer stay in Schaffhausen, Switzerland.

Contrary to the beliefs of many Americans, Switzerland is not entirely made up of snow-covered Alps and yodeling goatherds. Schaffhausen, in fact is not in the Alps at all but is situated among rolling green hills. And, while there are cows aplenty, complete with picturesque Swiss cowbells, Marybeth testifies that she never saw a goat. Even the Alps themselves are not like our conception of mountains. While our San Bernardino mountains are covered by forests, the Swiss mountains are almost all meadow land, with patches and strips of forest growing at random.

Swiss Families

European families, too, are not as strict as Americans often picture them. In Switzerland, as in most of Europe, smoking and drinking are permitted and accepted among teenagers. "But," Marybeth adds, "the Swiss kids never take advantage of this."

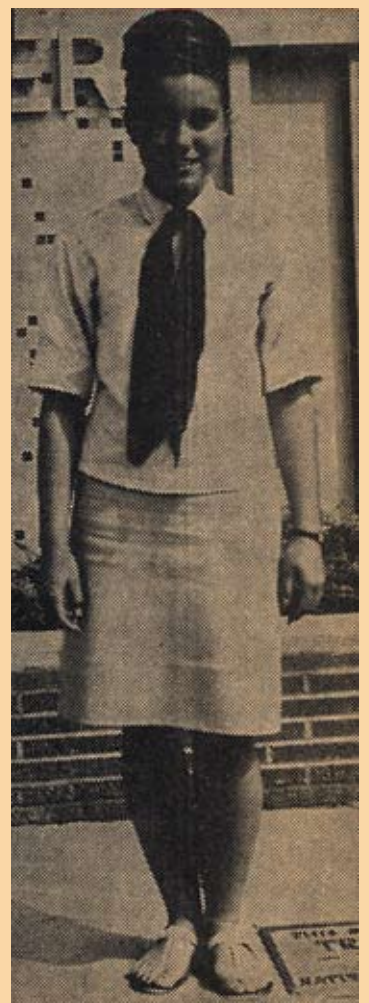

Dating customs are much like those in United States, Marybeth relates, except that the boys do not drive cars. Swiss teenagers walk to the cinema or to parties. In Shaffhausen, a favorite gathering place is the "munot" a Medieval fortress converted into a sort of club where dances are held every few weeks. Other favorite forms of recreation are waling, swimming and singing.

Teens Enjoy Singing

"Teens tend more to informal group activities rather than constantly pairing off," says Marybeth. "They

Principal's Letter

It is always customary for the principal of a high school to address a letter to the student body at the beginning of each school year. What does one put into such a letter? The usual general remarks about education and opportunity? These facts are already known by most of our students. The usual remarks about this being an outstanding year for our student body? This is also true, due to the work of the student council, teachers, and your principal.

My few brief comments will relate to student pride in their school. Almost any student would agree that Eisenhower is a good school. But I would argue that Eisenhower is an outstanding school and that opportunity here is greater than in most schools. Your student council, concerned with school spirit, has made as its prime goal this year the improvement of school spirit. I would encourage each of you to become active in our school clubs and organizations. Support our athletic teams with your attendance at both home and away games.

Personal pride in the appearance of your school is most important. Being responsible for disposing of your own trash plays an important part in this. This is particularly true in the cafeteria outside quad area. This is your school and to a large extent it is the kind of school that each student makes it. Your student council has adopted the motto this year "Spirit alive in '65." Let us make this motto come alive this year.

May this be your most successful year to date in your school endeavor. I wish you a most successful year.

Sincerely,
Mr. Albert Keegan,
Principal.

President's Letter

Our student council consists of 28 officers. There are 2800 of us here at Eisenhower. This year's council plans to represent the ideas of all the Eisenhower High School students. We are interested in what you would like to see done at Eisenhower.

The only way we have of getting your ideas is through your Student Council representative. Your representative is the tool you will use to get your ideas to the Student Council. If you have an idea or a complaint about the school, tell your representative. If this won't get your idea or complaint anywhere, then get to one of the Student Council officers and tell him.

After each House of Representatives meeting your first period teacher will be asked by your representative for enough time to make a report and to listen to any of your views. Mr. Keegan assures me that the teachers will allow the time needed. If your representative does not make a report, remind him of his job.

Tillie Guillen, Speaker of the house, presides over the House of Representatives. She will see that all representatives are aware of what your Student Council is doing. She will also tell the Student Council the ideas the House has given her.

We are in the Inland Valley League (IVY) this year and will be facing new teams and starting new traditions. Those of you who do not participate in sports, but are interested in academics, there will be a High School Bowl Team again this year, which may compete on an IVY League basis. Let's get off to a good start in our new league.

This summer your Student Council adopted a plan to try to ease the money raising burden of the clubs on campus. The plan is for all clubs to sell one product to make enough profit to support all the clubs and the Student Council budget. The clubs could draw from this money for their activities which will be services to Eisenhower. I hope that all the clubs will be interested in campus activities, which all students can participate in.

Our slogan for this year "Spirit Alive in '65" means a number of things. It means spirit on our athletic teams and in stands at our games. Most important it means spirit on the campus. Spirit on campus is different from spirit on the field or in the stands. On the field you want to win for your school, in the stands you are there to support your team. But on campus you are to show your community that you are proud of Eisenhower and that they should be proud of you.

Steve Reilly,
ASB President

Editor's Letter

On behalf of the staff, may I take this opportunity to welcome you new students, teachers, and administrators to Eisenhower.

To those of you who are returning for another year at Eisenhower, welcome back!

In its short history, Eisenhower has become known throughout Southern California for its scholastic, as well as its athletic, achievements.

During this sixth year, with its record-breaking enrollment, school spirit will be at an all-time high if we work to keep "Spirit alive in '65."

I sincerely wish all of you an outstanding school year in 1964-65.

Neta Hendricks,
Editor-in-Chief

Sec. of Interior Stresses Need for Clean Campus

As you know this year's motto is "Spirit Alive in '65." I believe that in doing this we could try and keep our campus clean.

Last year, thanks to our wonderful custodians and the north wind, we again won the clean campus trophy.

We are again in competition with San Bernardino High and Pacific High, who both came close to getting the trophy last year. So if everyone will just help to "stash the trash," we will save the custodians a lot of needless work and have a much nicer looking campus.

Sincerely,
Jess Hopkins
Sec. of Interior

Inal, Ike's AFS'er Arrives from Turkey

Inal Bekaroglu, Eisenhower's exchange student from Turkey, arrived in Los Angeles August 18. He traveled by bus across the United States from New York in four days with a group of A.F.S. students.

The Ray Furnas family met Inal in Los Angeles. The Furnas family consists of Mr. and Mrs. Furnas, Steve, 18, in the Air Force; Greg, 17, a senior at Eisenhower; and Melinda, 10, a 5th grader at Morgan.

Inal is really taken with the favorite American pastime — watching TV. His favorite show is "Password." It helps him to improve his English. He also likes comedies and movies.

California is his favorite state. He likes the sunny California weather.

In Turkey, Inal has two older brothers and a younger sister. He has studied English for four years and is quite fluent.

Any sophomore who is interested in trying out next year to be an exchange student should join the A.F.S. Club on campus. Anyone can join by coming to the meetings and participating in the activities.

September Simply Spells School

Schools open again this month to the roar of cheers by the nation's students. (Looks good, doesn't it?) Yes, another year of questions and answers has begun.

During the first day of school, these comments, made by those closely associated with the institution of learning, were recorded by an inquisitive reporter:

•Bob's Mother: "Happy? I'm overjoyed! I can finally do my housework in peace and quiet."

•The father of Judy, Pat and Mary Alice: "One big department store—that's what I should own. These girls have enough clothes to outfit a regiment."

•Mary's older Sister: "Maybe she'll take all that junk she's been collecting in my bureau drawers to school tomorrow."

•Mr. Gilch, Tommy's Neighbor: "This is a good time to re-seed the front lawn."

•Junior: "I can't open my locker again, and I lost the combination too."

•Junior's best friend: "Gosh, it ain't fair they should give out books the first day. And who's got time to cover 'em?"

•Football coach: "Maybe it would be easier to teach sewing."

•Home Room Counselor: "It's too late to change your program."

Clubs Listed . . .

grade, second semester, report card. Students who are active in C.F.S. for four out of the six semesters are eligible for Seal Bearer honors at graduation.

Any teacher or counselor may recommend a girl for Sobobans, and if she meets the above qualifications, she will be accepted.

ALMA MATER

One of our most important as well as impressive traditions at Eisenhower is the singing of the Alma Mater at the end of assemblies and ball games. Every new Eisenhower student should consider it his duty to learn the Alma Mater as soon as possible and join in the singing of it.

ALMA MATER

Where desert sands and mountains
Meet beneath the western sky.

'Tis here our heart
Forever yearn
For Eisenhower High.

Our Dear old Alma Mater
We owe our best to thee.
'Tis here we've spend our cherished years.
We pledge our loyalty.

•English Teacher: "No, you can not leave the room, but if you wish, you may leave the room."

•Janitor: "Please throw your lunch sacks in the can."

•Mr. Keegan: "I do not particularly care for Beatles, be they of the human or of the insect variety."

•Cafeteria Helper: "How can they chew their food and talk at the same time?"

•Bus Driver: "Step to the rear of the bus. Please . . . Please . . . PLEASE! EVERYBODY! KEEP QUIET!"

And so another year of fun, frolic, and friendship begins, not to mention exams, homework, and book reports.

Ah, well . . . it was a wonderful summer, but Christmas vacation is just around the next autumn leaf.

THE ROVING

TALK-TALK VS. BOOK-TALK

Tommy had just returned from his first day in school. His father asked, "What did you learn, Tommy?"

"I learned to say yes sir and no sir and no ma'am and ye ma'am."

"You did?"

"Yup."

***

FOR A BOUQUET

"That is the only molybdenum plant in this part of the country," boasted the manager to the visiting farm boy.

"Really," said the farm boy, "and when does it start to bloom?"

***

TIME AND MOTION EXPERT

"He's been sitting there for an hour doing nothing but wasting his time."

"How do you know?"

"I've been watching him."

***

O-U-C-H!

"Are your father and mother in?"

"They was in, but now they is out."

"They was in, they is out! Where's your grammar?"

"She's upstairs."

***

ANY IMPROVEMENT?

"I've changed my mind!" she snapped.

Asked he, "Does it work any better?"

***

THAT'S WHAT'S IN A NAME

Two little boys kept after school for being naughty were requested to write their names five hundred times.

"It isn't fair," one of them protested. "His name is Fry and my name is Van Humpendingerklutzick."

***

OBVIOUS CONCLUSION

Teacher: What is a vacuum? How would you define it?

Student X: It's a cleaner of some kind.

Teacher: No. You're thinking of a vacuum cleaner.

Student Y: A vacuum is sort of like nothing. You know—like in space . . . Well, I can't explain it, but it's in my head.

NEIGH TO ENDORSEMENTS

Once upon a time there was a famous TV star who did not endorse soap, tooth paste, candy, headache tablets, and the variety of other goodies found on that noisy screen. How come?

This TV star was a horse.

FATHER "WOES" BEST

"Doctor," sad the pale-faced man to his physician. "I'm in an awful state. Whenever the phone rings, I almost jump out of my skin. The doorbell gives me the willies. If I see a stranger at the door, I start shaking. I'm even afraid to look at a newspaper. What's come over me, anyway?"

The doctor patted him on the back. "There, there, old man. I know what you're going through. My teen-age daughter just learned to drive too."

***

FIRE WHEN READY

A bright young lady speeding through traffic, was stopped by an officer. "Look here," he growled, "Where's the fire?"

"What are you worrying about?" she countered. "You're no fireman!"

***

OLD JOKES NEVER DIE

"Who was that girl I saw you with last night?"

"That was no girl. That was...Gosh. I can't remember the punch line."

***

ONE GOOD DEED

She came running back from the river and shouted, "Daddy! Daddy! A man just chased me!"

"What did you do?" asked her father.

"Nothing," she replied breathlessly, "except he was fishing and he had some big fish laying in the sand and they were going to die so I put 'em back in the water."

especially like to get together and sing Swiss folk songs." The Swiss love to sing anytime, anywhere; one day, at a restaurant at the Swiss National Exposition, a group of students at one table began to sing and soon the entire restaurant, most of them total strangers, had joined in.

"Oh, we must have! We averaged over five hundred miles a day!"

Besides Schaffhausen, Marybeth visited other parts of Switzerland with her family. This included trips to Savognin in the Alps, the famed ski resorts St. Moritz and Pontrasin, and the castle of Chillon near Montreaux. Also part of every "Swisser's" itinerary was the Swiss National Exposition in Lausanne, an exhibition of the Swiss way of life, national products, and customs. An enjoyable feature of this Exposition for Marybeth was seeing the costumes, songs and dances of the different Kantons. Each of Switzerland's 23 Kantons, or provinces, has its own costume, its specific points of renown, and its own distinctive yodel.

Wonderful Experience

Home once again, Eisenhower's first "American Abroad" looks back on her Swiss summer with happiness and a little nostalgia: "A.F.S. is a wonderful experience for anyone to have I know!"

Varsity Eagles Strain For Top Conditioning To Face The Season Ahead.

Eagles Prepare For New Ivy League

Coach Milt Smaha's varsity football team has many surprises in store for the student body this year. Even the juniors and seniors who have seen our team in action before, are in for a treat.

Eisenhower joins Colton, Fontana, Corona, Rubidoux, and Monte Vista high schools to form the Inland Valley (IVY) League. Being a new league, the fight for the championship is rated a toss-up, although Colton and Fontana are slightly favored because of their CBL experience.

After losing so many of last year's players, due to graduation, our varsity squad is in a rebuilding stage. With only seven returning lettermen every position is still "up for grabs." The starting line-up will probably be decided after the first two practice games, to be held Monday and Tuesday of next week.

Holding two practices a day since Labor Day, the team has settled down to one session every afternoon.

The student council, as well as our football squads (Varsity, JV, and Bees) urge you to support our teams in their effort to win the first IVL League championship.

Ike Thin Clads In High Spirits

With new determination and a spark of enthusiasm, Coach Roy Harkin's thin clads opened this year's cross country season last Wednesday in preparation for stiff competition ahead.

Harkin reported that workouts at the beginning of the new season would be comparatively lighter than last year's "hurt, pain, and agony" type of workouts. He went on to say that "painful" workouts would become commonplace as the season progresses.

Coach Harkin optimistically stated that this year's season shows great promise, and Ike's varsity cross country team should establish a new tradition of excellence for future teams to imitate. He added that the team has real depth and good potential.

"We have the biggest cross country team that I have ever seen at EHS, and the response among the sophomores and juniors this year looks promising," commented Harkin. He related that the four returning varsity lettermen: Karl Henry, Steve Richard, Mike Arbuckle, and John Rice should combine with Mike Wilber, Gary Wisdom, and Tony Hernandez, three distance men from last year's track team to form a powerful fast-moving team.

SPORTS

Eisenhower Drill Team Gains Experience Throughout Summer

Left—left—left, right, left, are familiar words to all 40 members of Eisenhower's drill team. These words, not new to team members, due to their weekly practices throughout the summer, will outline all routines performed by the drill team this year.

Seven officers, 27 regular members, and six reserves sponsored by Mrs. Probst make up the drill team. The officers are: Claudia Heinese, Colonel; Maurine Schmitt, Lt. Colonel in charge of records; Karen Malinka, Lt. Colonel in charge of reserves; Vicky Hardman, Head Lieutenant; and Jane Abbott, Wendy Haggard, and Sue Bailey, Lieutenants. Other drill team members are: Chris Appleton, Shirley Blair, Linda Braksator, Nancy Burton, Debby Carlson, Laurie Clayton, Darlene Dodson, Sue Dodson, Nancy Elgin, Kathy Gentry, Becky Gonzales, Suzi Gross, Karla Hartly, Sana Holland, Vicki Keith, Nancy Lang, Toni La Scala, Niki Matich, Pam Mix, Donna Morrison, Laurie McBain, Barbara Nelson, Linda Philipps, Mary Porter, Ann Regan, Sandi Stull, Sharon Tingquist, Pam Trumbull, Diane Van Hoy, Susie Walters, and Sherri Wright.

Bake sales, bottle drives, candy sales, and car washes helped earn the $150 to help pay for the new uniforms.

According to Mrs. Probst, drill team sponsor, the girls will march in all home games, both football and basketball, two annual parades, some pep assemblies, and will attend Drill Team dance hosted by Colton Union High School.

Grim Outlook For EHS Jr. Varsity

The coming season for Eisenhower's Junior Varsity football team looks rather grim at present according to Mr. Dick Marsh, head coach. The team shows a great deal of pep and enthusiasm but has a drastic shortage of men and experience.

Mr. Marsh thinks that the team can improve in time when it begins to develop its potential. The J.V.'s will try their hardest and could use some support at their first game with Norte Vista next week.

Chances For a B Football Championship Look Promising As Team Shapes Up

When asked what he thought of his chances for a football championship were this season, Coach Wohlers stated, "This team has as much hustle as any B team I've had, but I'll hold my judgment until the first game with Aquinas."

With many veterans coming back to the B's this year, Coach Wohlers hopes to make up in experience what the team is lacking in speed. There are more seniors on the B's this year than on any previous B team. The B's coaching staff is assisted by Mr. Dick King.
